

WORKING FOR THE IMF WORKING FOR THE WORLD

THE IMF FUND INTERNSHIP PROGRAM (FIP)

The Fund Internship Program (FIP) provides an opportunity for highly talented graduate students to gain a better understanding of the work of the International Monetary Fund and contribute to the IMF's mission. As an intern in the FIP you would:

- Work with an experienced economist on a research project in one of thirteen departments over a 10-12 week period.
- Be part of a paid internship program with round trip travel to Washington D.C. and basic medical coverage.

Who should apply? PhD and Masters candidates in monetary and international economics, public finance, financial markets, and related fields within 1-2 years of graduation.

Applications accepted beginning in December 2014. To apply, or for more information, please visit:
