organize the

INTIMACY IN WOMEN'S WRITING AND READING International Summer School

Ljubljana, Slovenia, 22 - 27 August 2022

WHO IS IT FOR?

This International Summer School is intended for students at postgraduate (PhD) and graduate level (MA), who have research and future professional interests in women writers and related issues.

HOW?

The International School will be organized as a series of intensive lectures, workshops and a thematic excursion, with compulsory attendance to all activities. In the summer school we have invited established researchers and lecturers from universities members of the CEEPUS network, who will facilitate lectures in the areas of European women writers.

Participants will have the opportunity to

- intensively interact with an international team of experts in the field of women writers
- attend the international exploratory workshop Censoring Intimacy in Women's Writing and Reading
- present and discuss their study and research interests.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Please send a short CV and a motivation letter by the 28th of February 2022 to: ceepuswwih@gmail.com

Selection will be completed by 15th of March 2022. Only short-listed applicants will be notified via email.

Costs for selected participants from the universities included in the CEEPUS network will be covered by a full CEEPUS mobility grant.

TASKS AND CERTIFICATES

All the participants will receive a Certificate of Attendance for active participation at the events of the Summer School. The participants interested in getting a certificate with 6 ECTS will have to do some preparatory work and present the seminar work at an on-line event in September. The Intimacy in Women's Writing and Reading International Summer School is organized within the framework of the European Women Writers Course, offered by the School of Humanities (MA Programme Slovene Studies) University of Nova Gorica.
